Gori City Hall (Georgian: გორის მერია, goris meria) is an administrative building of Gori, Georgia, a city in eastern Georgia, which serves as the regional capital of Shida Kartli.

History [edit source]

According to media reports, the hall has been a target of shelling by Russian troops during the 2008 Russian Georgian war.[1] Until 2010, there was a monument to Joseph Stalin in front of the City Hall who was born in this city.[2][3]
